

Job Description Summary

Position	: QA intern
Department / Division	: Quality
Job Type	: Full Time
Location	: Bangalore, India
Stipend	: INR 8000
Duration	: 6 Months
Starting Date	: Immediate

Site Overview

Our Bangalore facility is growing fast as a key hub for manufacturing aerospace and defence components, supporting India's defence sector and global aviation supply chains. Join us in shaping the future of aerospace.

Position Overview

The Quality Inspector plays a critical role in ensuring successful manufacturing of products inspection as per drawing, instruments, reports & documents

Roles & Responsibilities

- Assist in performing quality checks on products as per defined standards
- Responsible to ensure the inward inspection as per stage drawing
- Responsible to ensure the In-Process inspection as per stage drawing
- Responsible to ensure the Final inspection as per customer drawing
- Use the calibrated instruments for inspection
- Verify the Raw material test certificate (Chemical & Mechanical properties & etc..)
- Prepare and maintain quality-related documents and records
- Coordinate with production/engineering teams for quality issues
- Participate in continuous improvement and corrective action activities
- Accepted tag to be placed on the part
- Ensure the signature in the route card after the completion of the inspection
- Use the calibrated instruments for inspection

Required Qualifications

- Bachelor's or Diploma in Mechanical engineering
- Ability to work across organizational functions and generate results without direct reporting relationships.
- Ability to communicate well both written and verbally in English.

Additional Information

Join us and be part of a team that is driving innovation in aerospace and defence. Our STSPL's Quality teams are making a global impact. Help us move the aerospace and defence industry forward.

To Apply

Send your CV to hrdsi@supramindustries.com
